

Autumn 1 homework - Roald Dahl

Choose at least one activity from these homework activities and hand it in to Mrs McGann by October 23rd.

Choose your favourite Roald Dahl book and read it by yourself or with a grown-up. Write a book review to recommend your book to other people. An example is on the back of this sheet.	Roald Dahl loved including disgusting and imaginative recipes in his books, from Froboscottle to George's Marvellous Medicine. Read through some examples and then create your own Revolting Recipe. You might even like to try making it with your grown-up's help!	Have a go at creating your very own Dream Jar from the BFG. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ENh1tYVfye8
Create a 3D model or Diorama of a scene from one of Roald Dahl's books. Be creative, you could use a shoe box or cereal box as a stage. Maybe it is James and the Giant Peach floating in the sea, or maybe it is Fantastic Mr Fox's den under the tree, it could be Mr and Mrs Twit's house.	Our School Author of the Half-term is Roald Dahl. 	Read about the incredible Chocolate Factory in Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. Write or draw and label your own version of what the children see when the doors open to Willy Wonka's factory. You can use this sentence starter to help... "As the humongous, ornate doors slowly swung open, the children stood amazed at what they saw."
Choose your favourite Roald Dahl Character and have a go at sketching in the style of Quentin Blake, the illustrator for Roald Dahl's books. There is a great instruction video here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1tcNX5o2naE And https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aZIm6QXSOP4 	Have a go at the Roald Dahl quiz here: https://www.penguin.co.uk/articles/childrens-article/are-you-roald-dahls-biggest-fan Create your own quiz based on your favourite book or books.	Design a poster to persuade people to read your favourite Roald Dahl book. Remember to make it eye-catching and include lots of persuasive language.
