

Spring Homework 2025

Choose at least one option from these homework activities and hand it in to Mrs McGann, by Friday 14th February, for us to celebrate in Assembly.

World Religion day is on the 19th January. Can you create a fact sheet about one religion? Try to include: place of worship, festivals and main beliefs.

Martin Luther King day is on the 20th January. Can you produce a five question quiz about Martin Luther King to ask your friends?

This half term you will start to see spring flowers such as snowdrops. Can you create a piece of artwork?

Chinese New Year begins on the 29th January and this is the year of the snake. Can you create a snake to celebrate this festival? It could be a drawing, painting or a 3D model?

NSPCC Number day is on the 7th February. Can you 'dress up in digits' on this day? Are you able to design and make a maths game to play with your friends?

National Storytelling Week starts on the 10th February. Can you write a story about something unexpected that happened on your way to school?

Can you ask your grown ups if they would like to come and read a story in school during that week?

On the 11th February, it is Safer Internet day. Please produce a poster which explains the importance of staying safe online.

Valentine's day is celebrated on the 14th February. Can you create a piece of artwork to celebrate this day?
